Citizens Welcomed On-To-Nelson Caravan To Coleman Wednesday Afternoon; 23 Cars In Caravan

Stayed Over Half Hour Here And Viewed Mining Industry And Scenic Grandeur of Rockies; Board of Trade Served Refreshments

Almost on the stroke of 4 p.m. the On-To-Nelson Caravan, which seeks as its objective a modern hardsurfaced highway stretching through the southern part of Manitoba west to Vancouver via the Crow's Nest Pass, rolled into town to be met by members of Coleman Board of Trade, Coleman Pipe Band, a covered wagon bearing a large welcome sign and a pilot car to which was attached a P. A. system and a commentator to tell citizens the objective of the caravan. The weather was perfect and children and adults lined the streets to welcome the Caravan. Twenty three cars were in the Caravan, led by Ernie McFarland president of Lethbridge Chamber of Commerce and the R. C. M. P. in scarlet tunics. The B. C. Highway Patrol car was also in the Caravan and would take over escort duties the moment the Caravan entered British Columbia.

The Caravan was taken to a flat alongside the International hoist house where an uninterrupted scene of International tipple, the town itself and a wide panorama of the Canadian Rockies was enjoyed. As in tribute to the Caravan a large TCA North Star droned its way over head while on the C.P.R. tracks directly below rumbled a freight engine, nearby could be seen car traffic on the same highway which the Caravan sought to modernize.

A lunch was served by the Coleman Board of Trade to the more than fifty visitors from Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta and welcome addresses given by Mayor F. Abousafy, of Coleman, and Mayor Enoch Williams, of Blairmore. Coleman Board members mixed freely with the visitors and made them feel entirely at home. Bag-pipe selections helped to keep the party full of pep.

After a brief rest the caravan was called into line by Mr. McFarland and sped on its way west.

John Kerr and Don Thornton joined it at Blairmore and this morning Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dickieson and Diane, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Patkinson and Georgann, J. H. Boulton and Evan Gushul left to join it at Cranbrook and remain with it until it reached Nelson.

H. T. Halliwell, of Macleod, was also a member of the Caravan and received great pleasure in meeting many of his old Coleman friends.

FRED ANTROBUS IN BELCHER HOSPITAL

Magistrate Fred Antrobus, unwell for the past few months, was taken to Belcher hospital last week where he is now a patient. Mrs. Antrobus accompanied her husband to the city and is residing there at the present time.

SALVATION ARMY HELD ANNUAL PICNIC

On Saturday, August 28, the Salvation Army officers and approximately 35 youngsters drove out to Crow's Nest Lake where they staged their annual picnic. Races and games were enjoyed in addition to an ample supply of ice cream, pop and Hot Dogs.

E. C. Ansley Here Sunday?

Coming South to Endeavour to Settle Several Salary Disputes Between Teachers and School Boards.

It is quite possible that on Sunday afternoon the Coleman School Board and E. C. Ansley, secretary of the Alberta Teachers' Alliance, along with H. E. "Ben" Dickson, conciliation member from Edmonton, will sit in the Board room and try to come to some arrangement pertaining to the dispute between the local teachers and the Board over salaries.

Mr. Ansley, wired asking for a meeting last Wednesday but this could not be granted due to four of the Trustees being at work in the mine. The Board proposed Sunday but up to Tuesday afternoon Mr. Ansley had not wired acceptance of the date.

As the dispute stands the Board has offered $150 across the board. Mr. Ansley has slashed the teachers' original demand of a straight $600 across the board to $300.

MR. AND MRS. L. A. CAROE JR. LEAVING COLEMAN

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Caroe Jr. and young son are scheduled to leave Coleman on Wednesday, Sept. 15 for New York where they will board the Queen Elizabeth for England. They plan on making their home at Chipstead, Coulsdon, Surrey.

Mr. Caroe is a Coleman boy his parents, residing here. He gained his education at the local schools and enlisted in the Canadian Army on July 1, 1941. He arrived back in Coleman following the war in Sept., 1945.

While overseas he met an English girl whom he married and they have one son. Mrs. Caroe and son joined Mr. Caroe in Coleman two years ago and will return with him to England.

Mr. And Mrs. Jack Wood To Leave Coleman

To Reside at Vancouver; Mr. Wood Came Here in 1916; Was For Many Years An Employee of Burns & Co.

Mr. Jack Wood, Coleman old-timer, along with Mrs. Wood plans on leaving Coleman within the next few days to take up residence in Vancouver and go into retirement. He will leave the employment of International Coal & Coke Co. where he has been employed as lampman on Friday evening.

Mr. Wood came from England in 1907 and settled in Fernie where he gained employment with Burns & Co. He later worked with that company at Moyie and Nelson and in 1916 he was transferred to the Burns' store in Coleman in the location now occupied by Zak's store. On or about 1925 Burns closed its local store and Mr. Wood was transferred to Fernie.

In 1934 he returned to Coleman and entered the employ of International, first as a watchman and during the past six years as lampman.

While residing in Cranbrook he joined the Knights of Pythias and during his earlier residence here was active in the local Sentinel Lodge, No. 25. In 1926 he became Grand Chancellor of Alberta and in 1918 in Coleman was Chancellor Commander of Sentinel Lodge.

He is also a member of Summit Lodge, A.F. & A.M.

Upon their arrival in Vancouver Mr. and Mrs. Wood will reside with the former's sister, Mrs. Louis Proudlock, for a period until they get the opportunity to look around and purchase property of their own.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood's many friends join in wishing them health and happiness in the new home on the west coast.

Elks' Carnival Well Patronized By Public

Baby Judith Ann Roughhead Won Monday's Major Prize; Joe Polski Won Saturday's Major Prize.

Secretary J. M. Rushton voiced himself as greatly pleased with the support accorded the Elks' carnival on Friday, Saturday, and Monday. Good crowds were on hand each night and all games were well patronized.

Mr. Evan Gushul won the $10 door prize on Friday night. On Saturday night Joe Polski, of Coleman, won the Sunbeam Mix Master and set of dishes. On Monday night the kitchen 5-piece chrome set was won by Judith Ann Roughhead, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chik Roughhead.

The two rides brought in for the kiddies proved very popular and were kept busy all three nights.

YOUNG MAN, DON'T GO WEST

If you're thinking of going West, young man, better take heed of Ottawa's warning and think again, says The Financial Post. According to Deputy Minister of Labor MacNamara, there are four job-seekers for every job on the Pacific coast.

Blame for the current unemployment in British Columbia is laid to the exodus which has been going on from the prairies and eastern Canada since the war. Last week's warning was especially directed to residents of the Prairies.

The latest report of the Unemployment Insurance Commission shows that on August 12 there were 17,183 jobless and only 4,337 jobs. By comparison, jobs and jobless just about balance in Ontario and the prairies.

Bob Henry New President Fish & Game Assoc.

A. Pane Appointed Secretary; Messrs Spargo and Watt Addressed Meeting.

Coleman Fish & Game Association held a re-organization meeting on Sunday evening. Robert "Bob" Henry was elected president and A. Pane secretary-treasurer.

Attending the meeting were Alberta Fish & Game Assoc. president Geo. Watt, and secretary George Spargo. Both men gave interesting addresses. Andrew Dow also addressed the meeting on the present reclamation project of the Coleman Association.

Both Rainbow and Outthroat fingerlings have been planted in local waters in recent weeks in an effort to restock in the years to come the rivers and creeks which have been depleted in the years gone by.

Another gang of interested members of the Coleman Fish & Game Association were out on Sunday and put in a good day's work on the reclamation project on Allison Creek. Officials are pleased to see a few more interested members turning out each Sunday and want to impress upon all that the club must have more help each Sunday in order to have the job completed before snow falls.

Be at The Motordrome at 8 a.m. Sunday and the club will see that your transportation is arranged. Bring along a shovel, axe, or saw and be ready to use them for the good of our fishing future. — COLEMAN FISH & GAME ASSOCIATION.

Council Seeks To Have All Vacant Homes Rented Within Town; May Assess Fee On Busses And Taxis

Ash Truck Driver Quits; To Appear Deputy Police; Much Routine Business Transacted

Regular meeting of the council was held on Tuesday evening. Present Mayor Abousafy, Councillors Jenkins, Ramsay, Wilson and Wood.

Mr. A. Tiberghien was present to protest to council the dumping of coke breeze, 16 tons, in a back alley near his home on the Flat by a neighbor. He stated that whenever a wind blew his home became filled with dust from the coke breeze. The breeze is to be used in the manufacture of cinder bricks. Constable W. Antle entered into the discussion and revealed that he had inspected the dump and had classified it as a criminal nuisance and on Sept. 1 had sent a notice to the owner of the breeze that he had been given ten days from that date to remove the nuisance.

Taximan Harry Setla was present to ask council to grant him the Grand Union taxi stand. He also asked that he be permitted to mark a taxi stand in front of the Modern Cafe. He was granted his first request but council declined to grant his second request.

The question of assessing all local public service vehicles a yearly fee was dealt with and will be brought up for further discussion at the next meeting.

Council is disturbed at those persons having vacant homes and who steadfastly refuse to rent them. Legal advice had been sought and a letter read Tuesday evening revealed that no existing law could compel these persons to rent their property against their wishes. Council authorized letters be sent to those parties asking them to realize the acute housing shortage in town and appealing to their sense of community spirit to rent their vacant homes.

Chief of Police Antle was granted his annual vacation. The Police committee was given the task of employing a deputy policeman during the Chief's absence.

Mr. C. C. Blue, of Pincher of Pincher Creek, sought permission to open a barber shop in town. He was advised to first secure his provincial license and that council would deal with his application after he secured same.

Permission was granted Modern Cafe to install a neon sign above its main street doorway.

The business of the meeting had been going smoothly, too smoothly in fact and councillors were stretching their arms preparatory to calling it a night when secretary Gladys Lees landed a body blow. She told them that the ash truck driver had quit and that ashes had not been collected for several days. W. & P. committee was authorized to get to work first thing Wednesday morning, secure a driver and get the truck working.

The Journal had the pleasure of a social call from Mr. A. J. Calderwood, travelling passenger agent of the C.P.R. on Friday morning.

They've Had It!

Saturday morning gardeners walked into their gardens with heavy hearts. A heavy frost had fallen during the night and the drooping stalks of both flowers and vegetables told their own tragic story. Gardening was over for another year. Again on Tuesday morning a heavy frost was experienced writing "Flinis" to whatever blooms had managed to escape the Saturday frost.

No Response To Building Offer

It Appears That While Many Desire Homes They Have Not the Necessary Cash To Buy or Prefer to Rent.

Three weeks ago the Coleman Board of Trade asked Coleman citizens desirous of constructing their own homes to list their names with the Board secretary. To-day nary a name has been forthcoming.

Definitely some citizens desire their own homes but it appears they have not sufficient cash with which to finance the project even with a government loan. Construction prices being what they are to-day both in labor and material a good modern home cannot be built under $5,500.

Rental homes seem to me the answer but since the government has "got from under" the rental scheme no rental homes will be available unless they are constructed by private capital.

Larry Ecroyd To Address Board Of Trade, Sept. 23

New M.L.A. Mr. Kovatch and Blairmore Board of Trade Executive to be Extended Invitation

Mr. Larry Ecroyd, Western Field Service representative of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, will address the Coleman Board of Trade at a supper meeting in the Grand Union on Thursday evening, Sept. 23. In addition the Board will extend an invitation to the executive of the Blairmore Board of Trade and to the new M.L.A. of Pincher-Crows Nest constituency Mr. L. A. Kovatch, of Hillcrest.

Mr. Ecroyd will speak on the activities of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and the advantages which can be gained by being a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

During the past summer a committee has been busy recording on film some of the beautiful areas of this district and also the Rodeo and other Board of Trade activities. This film will be shown on the screen at this particular meeting.

In order to help finance the new Southern Trans-Canada Highway Association the local Board voted an additional $25 donation thus making a total donation of $50.

Board President Percy Dickieson who will be attending the Nelson convention was chosen as Coleman's representative on the provincial directorship of the new Association when it is organized at Nelson on Friday morning. J. H. Boulton who will also attend the convention was given authority to vote in the convention hall on behalf of the local Board.

The building is to be given the name of the Roxy theatre and the Monday evening performance will start sharply at 8:55. Mr. Don Purcell and Mr. Ed. ## EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

How often you hear people tell about someone getting "a lucky break"! It does not seem to occur to them that often what we call good fortune is the result of intelligent planning.

As true men do not just sit back and wait for opportunities. They improve their skills, and learn more and more about their field of work, thus paving the way for opportunities.

Some years ago a certain cellist in a noted symphony orchestra paved the way for his great opportunity by memorizing the complete score of an opera. When the orchestra's regular conductor was suddenly stricken with illness, the cellist led the performance with brilliant success. Today he is world famous!

Thousands of cases could be quoted to illustrate how men have improved their fortunes by being prepared when opportunity knocked.

So why not plan now to put a knocker on your door?

No one should rely on lucky breaks to provide a retirement income and financial protection for their family. These things can be planned now on the basis of your present income, through life insurance. Then you will be sure of your future.

You Asked about the NATIONAL HOUSING ACT

A regular series of questions and answers on house financing and construction.

Q. If I send plans for my new house to Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, could I get an idea of how much it will cost?

A. No, I am afraid not. Because costs vary so much from city to city—and, indeed, even in the same city—Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation cannot undertake to furnish estimates. The best thing to do is to get a complete list of items entering into the construction of your house and check them against the plans and specifications. A complete set of detailed working drawings, a complete specification, a contract and a reputable contractor are the only known and tried methods of building a house without "extras".

Q. Because I am a veteran, the township in which I am going to build a new house is selling me a lot for $1. Will Central Mortgage and Housing appraise it at that value?

A. No. Neither does the township, actually. It is when a house is planned for that vacant land that it takes on a real value. Vacant, it means nothing to the township, but after a house has been erected, taxes start. Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation is very careful in appraising land at a fair and reasonable value.

Q. At present, I am building a home which I myself intend to occupy. However, my job is rather uncertain, and I might be forced to move to another city at some time in the future. I read in your column recently about rental insurance. Would that cover me?

A. No, it would not. Under the National Housing Act, rental insurance is meant for builders who are building a project of 8 or more units for rental. If you may move, the only thing you can do to be sure of renting your house is to select carefully the locality in which you are going to build. If you put up a house worth $8,000 in a poor neighborhood where it will be impossible to obtain more than a $35 rental, then—naturally you are bound to suffer a loss on your investment. If you build in a good neighborhood—with transportation and shopping facilities, near schools, and with pleasant, well-kept homes—then that is insurance in itself. People are always anxious to rent in a desirable community.

Q. I own a house and want to make a duplex out of it. Could I obtain a loan under the National Housing Act?

A. Yes. Home extension loans have been devised to assist house-owners to finance additional self-contained dwelling units in existing homes. This does not include improvements or repairs to a home unless those improvements or repairs are necessary to the creation of new housing units. Nor does it take into consideration improvements for farm dwellings (which come under the Farm Improvements Loans Act) or summer cottages. However, if you are considering adding one or more self-contained units you may apply for a loan. You can borrow up to a maximum of $3,000 for the first family housing unit to be added; and $1,000 for each additional unit. If the principal amount does not exceed $1,000 for each family unit you repay the loan in monthly instalments for three years at an annual interest rate of 5%. If you have borrowed more than $1,000, you have five years in which to repay the money. No other fee, (such as service charge or insurance premium) is charged as long as you are not in default. To apply, you get in touch with any branch of a chartered bank or an approved instalment, credit agency. They will supply you with application forms which you fill out in triplicate. You must present in duplicate plans and specifications of the proposed addition or alterations. These will be forwarded for approval to Central Mortgage and Housing by the bank or instalment credit agency. Naturally, they will also want a detailed estimate or tender showing the cost of the work, and evidence that you own the property and have paid taxes, and mortgage principal and interest up to the last due date. When you have been notified by the bank or agency that the application has been approved, you may start construction. I should also mention here that before the final approval of the loan is given, plans and specifications must be stamped as approved by all appropriate municipal authorities.

(Questions on house financing and construction may be directed to this column and every effort will be made to answer them at an early date. Editor)

Regular Sunday school sessions will begin on Sunday, Sept. 12 at 2 p.m. Will all children please be on hand promptly so that we may get classes fully organized and work started.

HOLY BAPTISM

The baptism took place on August 28 in St. Alban's church of Terence William, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Melnyk. The godparents were Mr. Kenneth Short and Mrs. W. S. Purvis.

A service to mark the opening of St. Alban's Sunday school was held last Sunday afternoon. Unfortunately a number of children were out of town over the holiday weekend which lessened the attendance. But there were a fair number of children and a good attendance of parents and other friends. Freddie Milley led the children's choir, carrying the processional cross. Donald Wilkie carried the Sunday school banner. The children of the Sunday school followed singing "Onward Christian Soldiers". The Vicar read the story of David's fight with Goliath, and spoke to the children of their fight as soldiers in Christ's army. The children then pledged themselves to be faithful and regular at Sunday school and to be loyal soldiers of the Cross. Each child was presented with a Sunday school badge and a picture of Christ and the children, Jim Wilkie took the offering. The service closed with the hymn "Stand up, stand up for Jesus". Francis Graham was the organist at this service.

Coleman Hotel "A Home Away From Home"---Service of The Highest Character

A modern hotel of today is becoming more and more a necessity in the realms of commercial activity. People in ever increasing numbers are forced because of their business and various other reasons to make the hotel a home away from home. Also people from nearby communities find it much more convenient to stay over night at the Coleman Hotel, that maintains reasonable rates, than to make the trip home and back again in a limited length of time. The Coleman Hotel is under the able management of the proprietor, Mr. Martin Lusich, who has had considerable experience in the hotel business, and realizes that to maintain a modern service and receive patrons from every station of life it is necessary to have the rates within the reach of all. Rooms in this hotel are comfortably furnished, tastefully decorated and have plenty of ventilation. They give the advantage of excellent service, which is of the highest character and provides for most any want desired. At this hotel, "guest is king"; meaning that when one registers his name as guest of this hotel, they are at his service as long as one wishes to stay, be it over night, for a week or month, and a home resident is as welcome as the travelling man. One may be assured there is no better home away from home than the Coleman Hotel.

T.B. CLINIC MAY VISIT COLEMAN

The provincial Tuberculosis Clinic's mobile unit may visit Coleman for a second time within a period of several years.

Mayor Frank Aboussafy was contacted by phone last week by a Mr. Baxter, who is in charge of the unit's schedule. It was stated that due to an interruption in the unit's schedule in northern Alberta it was possible to work the southern part of the province at greater length. The mayor relayed this information to the Coleman Board of Trade who in turn has asked Coleman Lions club, sponsors of the last visit, to undertake the task of bringing the clinic to Coleman.

Mr. Baxter is to meet a committee of three, Messrs F. R. Duncanson, H. Allen and A. Balloch, this afternoon to talk over proposed visit and determine when the visit could be made and the work involved.

1763 citizens, twelve years and over, were X-rayed during the last visit.

1949 MONARCH ON DISPLAY TO-DAY

Sentinel Motors is displaying the new 1949 Monarch today and many motorists are taking the advantage of inspecting it closely. The machine will be on the display room floor for a week or more and everyone is extended a cordial invitation by Mr. Mier, proprietor of Sentinel Motors, to come and view the car.

The grill work is different from that of the new Mercury and there are a number of other changes. It is believed that it will sell for slightly less than the new Mercury.

People shop where they are invited—that's why it pays to advertise.

I WANT TO KNOW...

Is an endowment policy best for a business woman?

For the business woman with no dependents, an endowment policy is frequently the most satisfactory. If you remain single, you can be sure of security and independence in later years. If you marry, the insurance will be a valuable addition to your mutual security.

The endowment income plan may or may not be best for you.

Make an appointment to see your Mutual Life of Canada agent today. He will explain to you the special benefits of each type of policy, and help you determine your own particular requirements.

WORLD HAPPENINGS

BRIEFLY TOLD

Secretary-General Trygve Lie has asked for $33,689,587 to operate the United Nations in 1949.

Saskatchewan, Canada's chief sunflower seed growing province, produced 20,000,000 lbs. in 1947.

The United Nations economic and social council voted to wind up the UN appeal for children by year-end. Collections thus far have reached $136,000,000.

Cyril Kirby Toren of Vancouver won the western Canada theatre conference's 1948 playwrighting competition. Prof. Kenneth Gordon, conference secretary-treasurer announced.

The Fraser river salmon catch this year will not meet earlier expectations, fishermen predicted. A spokesman said the anticipated 1,000,000 salmon now will not likely exceed 600,000 to 700,000.

When a baseball from the park across the street smashed her front window, a Vancouver housewife objected. She got this advice from the ball players: "Move your house back—it's in the way."

No Shortage Of Turkeys

OTTAWA.—Canada's supplies of turkeys are normal, officials of the agriculture department said.

They were commenting on a Washington report that turkey supplies in the United States will be scarcer and prices higher during the November Thanksgiving season.

Canada now has about 3,300,000 pounds in storage, officials said, with new supplies expected to come on the market in quantity in late fall.

Canadians do not lean heavily to turkeys as the Thanksgiving dish, as in the U.S. Here, the big market is at Christmas.

Considerable quantities of turkey will be available for export to the U.S., it was stated, and some now are moving. Dressed birds are going out in carload lots, and British Columbia and central Canada also are shipping out sizable numbers of birds for breeding.

KITCHEN MEDITATIONS

Harvest Thanks

By JANE DALE

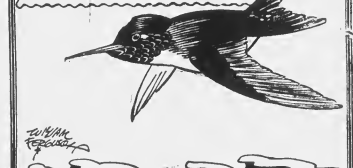

My grateful heart sends forth to Thee In words of deep humility,
A song of thanks for garnered store
From field and tree safely once more.
May I abundant blessings share
With Thy poor people everywhere.

My grateful heart sends forth to Thee
A prayer for all humanity;
Regardless of their race or creed,
May they from hunger soon be freed.
Upon them, Lord, Thy blessings pour
And give them too, abundant store.

Attended With The Alberta Editors

Metal Discovery Means Considerable Development In Peace River Area

EDMONTON.—Discovery of substantial deposits of lead, zinc and other base metals in the Great Slave Lake area would mean considerable development to the Yellowknife and Peace River districts and northern British Columbia, Resources Minister Mackinnon said.

Canada Second In Providing Haven For Displaced Persons

GENEVA.—Britain absorbed nearly three times more refugees and displaced persons during the last 12 months than any other country, the International Refugee Organization reported.

Of some 205,000 refugees resettled in new homes, Britain admitted 69,788. Canada was second with 25,244 persons admitted in the same period. The refugees were mostly Poles, Russians, Yugoslavs, Balts and Germans. The resettled Germans were nearly all Jews or victims of Nazi persecution.

Refugees were resettled in 73 countries on five continents, but 77 per cent. went to only six countries. The total number cared for by I.R.O. dropped during the year from 704,000 to 598,000.

Belgium admitted 19,147, the United States 16,836, France 16,216, Argentina 12,163, Australia 6,741, Venezuela 5,666, Austria 5,632, Brazil 3,491, The Netherlands 3,485, Paraguay 2,892, Sweden 1,943, Chile 1,473 and Peru 1,239.

More than 51,000 displaced persons were returned to their former homes, mostly in Eastern Europe, with nearly three-fifths going to Poland.

BOLT OF LIGHTNING HAD QUITE A SPREE

AUDUBON, N.J.—A bolt of lightning bounced crazily between two floors on the Audubon Hospital but injured no one. After striking a second-floor window, the bolt glanced off into a first-floor diet kitchen where it upset a pot of soup and knocked a spoon out of the hand of the woman who was stirring it.

DAWSON FACES DEARTH OF SUPPLIES THIS WINTER

DAWSON, Y.T.—This rich gold-producing area faces a serious dearth of food and fuel this winter unless supplies can be brought in before ice halts river transport in about 40 days.

R.C. Yukon Chamber of Mines has appealed to Transport Minister Chever to help relieve a situation regarded as a serious threat to continued development of this part of the territory.

No coal has reached here this year from the stock of thousands of tons at the federally-financed Tanlupas Bute mine at Carmacks. Woodpiles are dangerously low.

Stocks of gasoline and Diesel oil are reduced to rationing point at the peak of mining companies' operating season.

In a wire to the transport minister, H. W. Firth, chamber of mines secretary, asks immediate investigation into Yukon transport by a commission or transportation expert—Vancouver Province.

Success of the program would mean the construction of a large smelter and extension of railway facilities, Mr. Mackinnon said. It would also lead to power development and would provide a market for coal deposits in the Peace River area and northern British Columbia.

HONG KONG, HAWAII CAR PLATES ATTRACT ATTENTION AT WATERLOO LAKES PARK

Automobiles bearing the licence plates of Hong Kong and Hawaii have attracted great attention this summer in Waterloo Lakes National Park, the Canadian section of the Waterton-Glacier International Peace Park.

The visitors from Hong Kong were Mr. and Mrs. H. Corra.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Gray had the honor of being the first people to bring a Hawaii automobile licence plate into the Park this year. They travelled from Honolulu to visit Mr. Gray's brother, a petroleum engineer who has charge of Gulf Oil operations in the Waterton-Pincher area. M. H. Gray is a senior engineer with the Pacific Command.

Artificial Kidney Being Developed

CHICAGO.—Three researchers reported on developments of an artificial kidney to aid persons whose kidneys—vital in elimination of body wastes—do not function properly. They are Dr. Gordon Murray, Dr. Edmund Delorme and Newell Thomas of Toronto. They said that with their machine they reproduced "the function of the kidney and (it) will remove any, if not all of the toxic substances," which frequently cause death.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

NO FORTUNE WANTED

—By—
MARTIN MILBURN

THE long, sleek red roadster turned into the gas station and stopped at the nearest pump. Don Nichols, his face begrimed with grease and his hands black from using oily rags, strolled over to the car and leaned easily on the door.

"You back, Miss Anderson?" he said. "I just filled your tank yesterday."

"I thought I'd better have the oil checked," she replied primly.

He grinned and proceeded to check the oil—found it adequate. He returned to the door where she was sitting and said, "I'm afraid there's nothing I can do for you today."

"Thank you, Mr. Nichols."

She was about to step on the starter, hesitated, then turned to him and said softly, "Don, must we go on like this forever?" She placed a hand on his arm.

He grinned again, but with something of an effort. "You know how I feel about you, Elaine. But it won't work, and you know it."

"But why?" she cried. "Why won't it work? It's been done before."

"Certainly. Someone else has done it before. But I'm not built that way. When I make my pile I'll be my own—not something I've been donated."

She was on the verge of tears. "I can't help it if I've got money. It wasn't something I ordered. There's nothing I can do about it."

He softened suddenly. "I know, Elaine, and I'm not blaming you. I'm crazy about you but I can't see my way clear to doing anything about it. There'd always be that money between us. It's just one of those things, not your fault and not mine. I'd give anything if only you were penniless. But you've got more money—you've got millions."

Always have the feeling that people were referring to me as the man who married wealth, not as the man who married Elaine Anderson."

"Must our lives be ruined by your pride," Elaine restrained her tears, tossed her head back—she had some pride, too.

"I make enough out of this gas station," he continued, "to support a wife—yes, and a family. When I get married I'll be on that basis—and that basis only."

Her lips set stubbornly. "Goodbye, Mr. Nichols." She stepped on the starter, steered the flashy car out into the road, where it soon streaked out of sight.

Don went back into the station, kicked an empty oil can and back it clattered against the wall. Before he had time to do more damage the bell rang, indicating a car was pulling up. He went back to the pumps.

He was unable to sleep that night. Tossing and turning he could think only of Elaine's lovely face and how much he wanted her. Old Moneybags Anderson, he thought, why did he have to have such a beautiful daughter. Life would have been pleasant in the extreme except that there was no life for him without Elaine—and he could not have Elaine because she was an heiress. Someone else could marry an heiress, but not Don Nichols. He would make his own way in life, Elaine or no Elaine. Finally, when it was nearing dawn, he fell asleep.

He felt, not good, but better in the morning. It was an unhappy decision, but he had made up his mind. He could not have Elaine and that was all there was to it.

It was after shaving, while he was examining his clean, shining face in the mirror, that the idea came to him. Of course, why hadn't he thought of it before? Suddenly life took on a rosy hue. It might not work but there was no harm in trying. He rode to the station with a song on his lips.

It was almost a week before Elaine showed up at the station. She had gotten over her anger and could not stay away. Don advanced to the car with a cheery smile. "How are you, Elaine?"

She said nothing, looked at him questioning. "Elaine," he said, "Will you marry me?"

Her jaws dropped. For a moment she could not find words. Then she looked over and felt his forehead. "Are you sure you feel all right, Don?"

"Oh, I feel just fine, just fine." She closed her eyes and counted to ten, then opened them and asked, "Now would you mind repeating what you just said?"

"I said, will you marry me?" And all she could say was, "Oh, Don."

After the ceremony was over, they rode out into the country in Don's car. It was evening and Elaine leaned happily on Don's shoulder. A justice of the peace had performed the ceremony, and no one, as yet, knew about it.

They parked by a little, curving stream, and Elaine whispered, "I'm so glad your pride didn't keep you from me."

"Yes, it would have been awful." "Marriage," she declared, "is a partnership. We're partners, aren't we?"

"You bet." His eyes were closed; he was drunk in the nearness of her. "Well," she persisted, "Since we're partners, what you're got is mine, and what I've got is yours."

"Certainly."

"In that case," Elaine said, "We can open a string of gasoline stations—from here to the coast."

"No, we can't."

Elaine looked up at him. "Why not?"

"Because we haven't enough money."

"You," he interrupted, "Have nothing."

"What do you mean?" He took a deep breath. This was it. "I knew," he said, "that if I went to your father, looking like a gentleman, he might consent to our marriage. So I went to see him immediately after a tough day at the station. My face was dirty, my hands were filthy, my denims were torn. I looked a mess. I told him I was going to marry you."

"You do, he said, and I'll cut him off without a cent. So there you are—you're cut off without a cent."

For a long time she said nothing. Then she smuggled close to him. "Good old dad," she breathed, "I guess we'll have to get a string of gasoline stations the hard way."

FRIED TOMATOES

Slice firm unpeeled tomatoes. Dip in flour to which salt and pepper have been added. Fry to a light brown on both sides; about 5 or 6 slices at a time, taking care not to break them. Remove from pan, pour in top milk and let come to a boil. Pour over tomatoes. Usually enough flour is left in pan to slightly thicken sauce.

BROWN BETTY

2 tablespoons melted butter
2 cups toasted bread crumbs
4 sliced or chopped apples
Grating on lemon or orange rind
Juice of 1 orange or add enough water to make  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup liquid
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sugar
Put the buttered crumbs into a baking dish in alternative layers with the apples, making the last layer of crumbs, and sprinkle each layer of apples with the fruit juice, water and sugar. Bake 1 hour; cover the dish the first half of cooking. Serve with hard sauce or cream. Pineapple can be used the same way, using pineapple juice for liquid.

TO LIVE OFF LAND
ARMED WITH BOWS

VICTORIA.—Three modern adherents to the Robin Hood tradition are set to embark on a trans-Canada jeep-and-trailer trip.

Armed with bows and arrows, the three—Maurice Chaves, his wife Nikki, and Leo B. Theroux, all of San Francisco, plan to live off game in season, with the occasional bit of bounty money for the scalp of a predatory animal.

"We want to prove that people can live off the land as they did in the days of Robin Hood," Charles said.

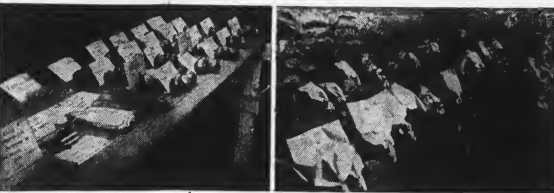

GAME OF BASEBALL
Research has shown that a game called "Base Ball" was played in the United States and England before 1838.

Manitoba's Sunflower Crop

Part of Southern Manitoba's 35,000 acres of sunflowers; at midsummer growth was good.

Sunflower acreage in Manitoba is on the increase and incidentally, corn acreage has decreased, which may be due to better rainfall in the southwestern part of the province where the sunflowers and corn are chiefly grown. Corn can stand more drought than sunflowers. Increase in sunflowers is also influenced by general propaganda and good prices for oil, and the operation of an oil extraction plant at Altona. Moreover, better varieties are available. Last surveys on the Southern Manitoba crop indicate there are approximately 32,000 acres in sunflowers as compared to 25,000 in 1947.

Right: At the recent Farmers' Field Day held at Morden this young lad was very much interested in a couple of practical rabbit traps which might be made at home by orchardists who want to get rid of this pest. Left, this interesting little machine which can be run by hand or by a small motor shells peas which drop into a trough and are collected in the basket, thus speeding up home canning.

5,000 Dutch Seek
Canadian Farms

EDMONTON.—Between 4,000 and 5,000 Netherlands families will come to Canada next year with the intention of purchasing farm lands. Resources Minister Hon. J. MacKinnon announced.

The minister said negotiations now are being carried out by Canadian and Netherlands authorities about the proposed movement which would involve about 20,000 persons.

"They are not farm laborers," Mr. MacKinnon said, "but people with money who will eventually purchase and work their own farms."

ROLE NOT ALTERED

PORT ARTHUR, Ont.—Sir Charles Wright, Chief of the Royal Navy Scientific Service during the war, said that the coming of the atomic bomb has not altered the role of the navy, which still will be required to fight and to move men and equipment.

No Shortage Of Butter In Northland

CHURCHILL, Man.—While the rest of Canada wonders which—if either—side its bread will be buttered on, Eskimos at far northern Salisbury Island have butter to barter.

The reason: they're diligent beach-combers.

Eskimo families numbering 40 souls, who wintered on Salisbury Island, salvaged large supplies of both butter and coffee which drifted ashore from the Hudson's Bay company ship Nascopee, wrecked last summer off Cape Dorset.

Employees of the department of transport, stationed at Nottingham, were short of the two commodities and gladly entered into trade with the Eskimos.

They had plenty of tea and that was fine with the Eskimos.
